EMPLOYEE HR Policy

Contents

1. Code of Business Conduct and Ethics

This Code of Business Conduct and Ethics applies to all employees and officers of the subsidiaries and affiliates of McKinsol Consulting Inc. Ltd, which are referred to in this Code as Company or the Company.

- The Company is proud of its reputation for integrity and honesty and is committed to these core values. Personal responsibility is at the core of the Company's principles and culture. The Company's reputation depends on you maintaining the highest standards of conduct in all business endeavors. You have a personal responsibility to protect this reputation, to "do the right thing," and to act with honesty and integrity in all dealings with customers, business partners and each other. You should not take unfair advantage of anyone through manipulation, concealment, abuse of privileged information, misrepresentation of material facts, or any other unfair-dealing practice.
- The principles set forth in this document describe how you should conduct yourself. This Code does not address every expectation or condition regarding proper and ethical business conduct. Good common sense is your best guide. It does not substitute for Company policies and procedures. In every business- related endeavor, you must follow the ethics and compliance principles set forth in this Code as well as all other applicable corporate policies and procedures.
- You will be expected to cooperate in assuring that violations of this Code are promptly addressed. Company has a policy of protecting the confidentiality of those making reports of possible misconduct to the maximum extent permitted by law. In no event will there be any retaliation against someone for reporting an activity that he or she in good faith believes to be a violation of any law, rule, regulation, internal policy or this Code. Any supervisor intimidating or imposing sanctions on someone for reporting a matter will be disciplined up to and including Separation.
- You are accountable for reading, understanding and adhering to this Code. Further, compliance with all laws, rules and regulations related to Company activities is mandatory and your conduct must be such as to avoid even the appearance of impropriety. Failure to do so could result in disciplinary action, up to and including Separation of employment.
- If you are uncertain about what to do, refer to the relevant section of this Code. If you are still unsure, speak with your supervisor or, if you prefer, communicate with any of the other points of contact indicated. If you have any doubt, ask for help.
- Whenever any changes will be done in HR handbook during the year it will be introduced as an amendment, it will be released under the clause in that amendment consider in next year policy, this may be released separately during the year anytime.

1.1 In the Workplace

Company is committed to providing a diverse and inclusive work environment, free of all forms of unlawful discrimination, including any type of harassment.

1.1.1 Respect

- The Company's greatest strength lies in the talent and ability of its associates. Since working in partnership is vital to the Company's continued success, mutual respect must be the basis for all work relationships. Engaging in behavior that ridicules, belittles, intimidates, threatens or demeans, affects productivity, can negatively impact the Company's reputation. You are expected to treat others with the same respect and dignity that any reasonable person may wish to receive, creating a work environment that is inclusive, supportive and free of harassment and unlawful discrimination.

1.1.2 Equal Employment Opportunity

- The talents and skills needed to conduct business successfully are not limited to any particular group of people. Company has a long-standing commitment to a meaningful policy of equal employment opportunity. The Company's policy is to ensure equal employment and advancement opportunity for all qualified individuals without distinction or discrimination because of race, color, religion, gender, sexual orientation, age, national origin, disability, covered veteran status, marital status or any other unlawful basis. As part of this commitment, the Company will make reasonable accommodations for applicants and qualified employees.

1.1.3 Sexual Harassment and Other Discriminatory Harassment

- Sexual harassment and other discriminatory harassment are illegal and violate Company policies. Actions or words of a sexual nature that harass or intimidate others are prohibited. Similarly, actions or
- Words that harass or intimidate based on race, color, religion, gender, sexual orientation, age, national origin, disability, covered veteran status, marital status or any other unlawful basis are also prohibited.
- NOC is needed for (Female) employee working in Night shift mandatory, Women safety clause as per Gov of UP.

1.2 Business Conduct Certification Program

- The responsibility for maintaining the Company's reputation for integrity and compliance rests in large measure on associates who guide its operations and others in particularly sensitive positions. The Business Conduct Certification Program is designed to have you affirm your compliance with the standards contained in this Code and to help identify situations that may in fact, or in appearance, involve conflicts of interest or other improper conduct. If you are required to complete or update a Business Conduct Certificate, you must do so in a timely and forthright manner with accurate responses. Above all, you must remember that any act that gives the appearance of being improper can damage Company's reputation and impair the public's confidence in the Company. All such acts must be avoided.
- You must acknowledge that you have read and understand this Employee Code of Business Conduct and Ethics. In addition, management-level associates must periodically disclose on Business Conduct Certificate information that is considered to be directly relevant to avoiding problems with compliance obligations, self-dealing and impropriety. In certain circumstances, disclosure is required even if appropriate approval is obtained. An investigation may be conducted to resolve potential problems. All associates are required to cooperate in reaching a resolution of any issues found.

1.3 Conflicts of Interest

- Company policy prohibits conflicts of interest. A "conflict of interest" occurs when your private interest interferes in any way with the interests of Company. In addition to avoiding conflicts of interest, you should also avoid even the appearance of a conflict.

1.3.1 Corporate Opportunities

- You owe a duty to Company to advance its legitimate interests. You are prohibited from competing with the Company and from using corporate property, information or position for personal opportunities or gain.

1.3.2 Outside Activities - Officer or Director of another business

- You may not serve as a director, officer, trustee, and partner or in any other principal position of another for-profit or publicly held organization or company without the prior approval of Company's Chief Executive Officer (or a designee). You should obtain approval from Company's Chief Executive Officer (or a designee) before agreeing to serve on the board or in a principal position of a trade or professional association or of a non-profit organization. In any event, these outside activities must not impact in any way your daily job responsibilities in your current position.

1.3.3 Second Job

- Unless the Company otherwise consents in its sole discretion, you will devote your entire resources and full and undivided attention exclusively to the business of the Company during the term of your employment with the Company and shall not accept any other employment or engagement (honorary or otherwise).

1.3.4 Vendors, Suppliers and Consultants

- All vendors, suppliers and consultants shall be approved and Only For Employee we need to share in accordance with Company policies and procedures. Company's business relationships must be totally based on their ability to competitively meet the Company's business needs. If your association with a current or prospective Company vendor, supplier or consultant is of a nature that gives rise, or potentially gives rise, to a conflict of interest, the Company may have to refrain from entering into the relationship and, in any event, you must not be involved in any way with approving, managing or influencing the Company's business relationship.

1.3.5 Gifts and Entertainment

- The occasional exchange of inexpensive gifts and modest forms of entertainment that have no special significance attached and are reasonable in nature, frequency and cost, are normal in business and help build strong and trusting relationships with customers, suppliers and other business partners. However, receiving such gifts or entertainment must never affect your judgment or decision-making, nor should they be offered in return for favorable treatment from others.
- What constitutes good business practice with respect to gifts and entertainment varies by industry, business unit and location. Gifts from agents to individual insurance clients of other than de minimus value are generally regarded as "rebates" and as such are prohibited. No gifts to you valued at more than INR 2,500 would be allowed. Gifts to you valued between INR 1,000 and INR 2,500 or forms of business entertainment that exceed reasonable and customary practices should be politely declined, unless approved in advance by your functional head for sound business reasons.

1.3.6 Communication of Conflicts

- All potential and actual conflicts of interest or material transactions or relationships that reasonably could be expected to give rise to such a conflict or the appearance of such a conflict must be disclosed. If you have any doubt about whether a conflict of interest exists after consulting this Code, you should seek assistance from the appropriate persons or entities identified in the Resources section, so that you can make that determination.
- Company and its associates will not directly or indirectly engage in bribery, kickbacks, payoffs or other corrupt business practices, in their relations with governmental agencies or customers.

1.4 Protection and Proper Use of Company Assets

- Safeguarding and appropriately using Company assets, whether those assets take the form of paper files, electronic data, computer resources, trademarks or otherwise, is critical.

1.4.1 Confidentiality

- Company is committed to preserving customer and employee trust. All information, whether it is business, customer or employee-related, must be treated in a confidential manner, and disclosing it is limited to those people who have an appropriate business or legal reason to have access to the information. You need to take special precautions when transmitting information via e-mail, fax, the Internet or other media. Remember to treat all such communications as if they were public documents and printed on letterhead.
- In addition, Company meetings are confidential. You may not use audio or video equipment to record these meetings without the specific prior authorization of the head of your department.

1.4.2 Technology

- Safeguarding computer resources is critical because the Company relies on technology to conduct daily business. Software is provided to enable you to perform your job and is covered by federal copyright laws. You cannot duplicate, distribute or lend software to anyone unless permitted by the license agreement.
- Company provides electronic mail (e-mail) and Internet access to assist and facilitate business communications. All information stored, transmitted, received, or contained in these systems is the Company's sole property and is subject to its review at any time. All e-mail and Internet use must be consistent with Company's policies, practices and commitment to ensuring a work environment where all persons are treated with respect and dignity. Because these systems provide access to a worldwide audience, you should act at all times as if you are representing Company to the public, and should preserve Company's system security and protect its name and trademarks.
- You must act responsibly and adhere to all laws and Company policies when using e-mail or the Internet.
- You must use your computer appropriately in accordance with Company standards and be sure to secure both the computer and all data from loss, damage or unauthorized access, reporting all instances of unauthorized access to the Information Technology Department.

1.5 Administration

1.5.1 Reporting of Any Illegal or Unethical Behavior; Points of Contact

- If you are aware of any illegal or unethical behavior or if you believe that an applicable law, rule or regulation or this Code has been violated, the matter must be promptly reported to your supervisor or company executives.
- Your supervisor is normally the first person you should contact if you have questions about anything in this Code or if you believe Company or an associate is violating the law or Company policy or engaging in conduct that appears unethical. Under some circumstances, it may be impractical or you may feel uncomfortable raising a matter with your supervisor. In those instances, you may contact the head of your department or any other company executives. Furthermore, you should take care to report violations to a person who you believe is not involved in the alleged violation. All reports of alleged violations will be promptly investigated and, if appropriate, remedied, and if legally required, immediately reported to the proper governmental authority.

1.6 Daily Work Report Policy

- It is mandatory for every employee/consultant to submit the daily work status report every day to their respective reporting manager irrespective of their work location. Employee working on client projects are supposed to send the weekly status report to their clients via McKinsol project manager or team lead along with planned tasks for next week to be mentioned in the same report. However, employees working remotely, or non-billable assignments (partially or fully) should submit daily status reports also to McKinsol reporting manager or lead. So, employee on client projects working remotely need to submit their daily status reports to the clients and if assignment is partially billable or non-billable then submit to McKinsol management. In absence of this the day may be considered as an un-paid leave by HR without ask.
- All the report will be taken from HR portal (if incase it's not working) we can use manual report.
- Any over time & weekend work should be on HR portal,

3.9 COVID-19 Infectious Disease Control Policy

Coronavirus disease 2019 (COVID-19) is a respiratory illness with symptoms of fever, cough, and shortness of breath. The purpose of this policy is to ensure the health and safety of our associates, visitors, clients, and vendors.

McKinsol Consulting Inc will not discriminate against any job applicant or employee based merely on the fact the individual has COVID-19. However, McKinsol Consulting Inc. reserves the right to exclude a person with COVID-19 from workplace facilities, programs and functions if the company finds that such restriction is necessary for the welfare of the person who has COVID-19 and/or the welfare of others within the workplace. All decisions will be based on current and well-informed medical judgments concerning the disease, the risks of transmitting the illness to others, the symptoms and special circumstances of each individual who has the disease, and a careful weighing of the identified risks.

In light of the current situation, McKinsol Consulting Inc has adopted the following practices to minimize potential exposure of employees to COVID-19 in our workplace. Employees are requested to:

- Conduct virtual meetings instead of in-person meetings when in office as well.
- Practice social distancing (staying at least 6 feet away from others).
- Avoid unnecessary travel for personal or professional reasons.
- Avoid gathering in break rooms, work rooms, and other areas where groups congregate.
- Wash hands often with soap and warm water for at least 20 seconds.
- Avoid touching their eyes, nose, and mouth.
- Keep workspaces clean using company-provided cleaning supplies.
- Cover coughs and sneezes with a tissue or the inside of the elbow.
- Where possible, avoid public transportation and recreational activities where you might come into contact with contagious individuals.

Stay Home if Sick:

Employees should notify their supervisor of any symptom related to COVID-19, including fever, cough and/or acute respiratory symptoms and those with symptoms should stay home. Employees should wait until they have been cleared by a healthcare provider before returning to work. If an employee shows symptoms of acute respiratory illness at work, they will be sent home immediately.

Report Potential Exposure:

Employees should notify their supervisor or the HR Team if they have been in contact with someone who has COVID-19, even if the employee is asymptomatic. If an employee has recently traveled to a location that the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) has identified as having an active outbreak, the employee should notify their supervisor or the HR Team as well. These employees may be asked to Isolate/work from home for 14 days.

Provide Notice of Absences:

Employees who will be absent from work should generally follow McKinsol Consulting Inc regular procedures for notifying the company of the need for time off.

If an employee is out sick or shows symptoms of being ill, it may become necessary to request Information from the employee and/or their healthcare provider, subject to applicable laws. In General, McKinsol Consulting Inc. may request medical information to confirm an employee's need to be absent and to know that it is appropriate for the employee to return to work. McKinsol Consulting Inc. will comply with all applicable statutes and regulations that protect the privacy of persons who have a communicable disease.

Visitors:

There should be no visitors to the workplace unless it is mission-critical, and the meeting cannot be conducted virtually. No Visitor allowed to Work Place /except the individual who has a formal invite for Interviews/ meetings/ visit

Work-Related Travel:

All nonessential work-related travel is restricted without the prior written authorization of a supervisor. Before providing authorization, supervisors must check for the latest guidance and recommendations for each country and location to which the employee will travel. Employees must monitor themselves for symptoms of fever, cough or acute respiratory illness before starting or after completing travel and are required to notify their supervisor and stay home if they are sick prior to or after travel.

Personal Travel:

Employees must report any personal travel plans, whether domestic or international, to their supervisor before departure. Depending on the situation, McKinsol Consulting Inc Limited. may ask the employee to follow certain steps, such as working from home for a 14-day period, before returning to the workplace.

Working from Home:

- At this time, employees should be following all guidance from public health officials, state and local governments and the company regarding work from home policies and requirements. If an employee has a heightened health concern and wants to work from home and has the ability to perform their job away from McKinsol Consulting Inc. premises, they should contact their supervisor. They do not need to disclose their health information. Requests will be handled on a case-by-case basis.

- Supervisors may modify job responsibilities, if possible, to enable associates to work from home. Associates are expected, if able, to work from home during the 14-day isolation period if applicable.
- If you have questions about this policy, contact your supervisor or the HR Team.
- As off now company does not have WFH policy unless otherwise employees reporting manager, HR, LOB leader, Management approves collectively.

2.Employee Development

2.1 General

- It is the policy of the Company that the work of each employee will be evaluated periodically by the employee's manager/supervisor, in order to monitor individual performance on the job, assess training needs and to identify future leaders.
- The process of employee development is covered by:
 - Appraisals and Increment;
 - Training, Seminars and Certification
 - Career Planning

4. 2 Appraisals and Increment

The process of performance evaluation provides a systematic approach for communicating goals, expectations and objectives to each employee as well as documenting individual performance.

- Employees are required to attend 4 Performance review one major (Performance Review) which will take place in June and December and 2 minor to 2 major appraisals which will take place in March and September.
- Targets and quota are mandatory in any sales or sales related jobs. Any incentive is subject to management approvals at the time it's due.
- Incentives Once payment /First Invoice received from client we will dispersed.
- If KRA rating or performance rating is below 60% for two months will bring one warning and third month in a calendar year brings PIP and thereafter separation
- Weekly summary dashboard and DSR are administrative work but very essential for performance optimization and feedback. Daily attendance is mandatory at the portal.
- Increments will be rewarded once in a year based on 4 appraisal and other factors such as but not limited to client feedback, performance CRITERIA in appraisals form, manager review, management recommendation etc. Please note that we value positive attitude supporting company, help in improving company practices and productivity.

- Timely appraisal of any employee is the responsibility of employee and employee's manager. In absence of timely appraisal employee and manager will be held responsible. It is the duty of employee's manager to provide 360-degree feedback about the employee in writing after a verbal session with each of the employee as his or her report.
- Effective Jan 2022 we will do salary increment once a year in Jan only. New hiring in 2021 will also be subject to salary increment in Jan only based on MIM duration of completion in 2021.
- Due to covid 19 pandemic all the bonuses/increments have been frozen. It is management discretion to release the bonuses and award increments.

4.3 Training, Seminars & Certification Fee:

- Time to time company may ask employee to take training or do certification in new emerging modules or technology areas and sponsor the cost of doing this on case-by-case basis. This is a company investment to acquire knowledge and skills in new dimension areas or in areas where company wants to expand. So company management decides about such expenses for those individuals and programs which are aligned with company goals. The minimum eligibility to claim for such reimbursement is completion of one year of employment with company and employee continues for one more year of employment upon attending such training and doing certifications. Otherwise, employee will have to return such investment back to the company. Certification fee is reimbursed only if employee passed the exam successfully. The same policy is applicable to industry or SAP conferences or seminars where company invests such as SAPPHIRE or NRF.

4.4 Manager and Mentor Feedback

- Employees are required to provide 360-degree feedback on their managers and mentors to HR directly in a form provided by HR to the employees. This should be filled twice a year in Dec and Jun. The criteria of the feedback is based on their mentorship, skills, transparency and help employee to grow their technical and job skills.

5. Compensation

5.1 Salary Administration

- All employees will be paid their salary on a monthly basis. Paychecks are distributed between 1st and 5th day of each month, except when either of those days falls on a Saturday, Sunday or holiday, in which case paychecks will be distributed on the preceding workday. Timesheets are due to the Executive Director within two days of each pay period. All salary deductions are itemized and presented to employees with the paycheck.
- Attendance will be picked from 26th of last month till 25th of next month for salary processing.
- Payroll period will be 26th to 25th, so salary will be run on 7th of every month.
- Incentives and other expenses to be released by 15th of every month. (If 10th and 15th falls in sat and sun, salary needs to get released earlier).
- Mandatory: DSR need to be submit on daily basis & Timesheet need to be submit on weekly basis, otherwise it will be considered as LOP. There is no liberty in it.

5.1 Salary Increases

Compensation review is an annual exercise, which determines the increment in salary. The increment is done on the cost-of-living adjustments and market trends in compensation levels. However, increment in the employee's salary is not automatic and will be subject to the employee's performance and the company's performance.

6. Employee Separation

An employee will be separated from the company in the following events:

- On their resignation from the services of the company;
- On being removed from the services or on being dismissed by the company; then employee will not qualify for any documentary support.
